CONSIDER BUILDING A BUSINESS ON THE SIDE

Australian wages are growing more slowly than the rising cost of living

The trend shows that the growth of wages has been declining since mid 2012 from an annual 3.8% to 1.9% (taken from an article from The Guardian)

How many times have you thought,
One day I will run my own business.

This is a great source of second income and provides high job satisfaction

You choose the days and hours you want to work

This is an exciting career teaching young people safe driving skills

If you already own a late model car you are half way there to venture into this unique career
